

SAMUEL DE TOMASI

MOTION & GRAPHIC DESIGNER

PROFILE

I am an experienced Motion Graphics Designer based in Manchester, producing high quality motion graphics for TV, film and advertising for a range of clients and industries.

Originally from Brazil, I worked in London for over three years developing international TV and cinema campaigns, online banners, digital panels and interactive cinema trailers. Prior to this, I was head designer for a creative studio in Brazil, working on TV commercials, corporate and online videos. I spent 2014 in Brazil: while there, I carried out numerous freelance roles and developed an educational mobile game. Having returned to the UK, I have focused on developing my skills in 3D and am now seeking new opportunities.

I am a highly motivated designer, passionate about developing innovative, beautiful graphics which respond to client needs. Whether it be producing original motions graphics or online gaming concepts, I am an excellent creative all-rounder, with great attention to detail. My diverse experience has built my skills at every stage of the design process from conception to delivery. I remain focused under pressure, always meeting tight deadlines, and am an effective team member.
